FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SOUTH FLORIDA WORKFORCE TO HOST SECOND ROUND OF BUSINESS INCENTIVES ROUNDTABLE

(MIAMI, January 5, 2011) — South Florida Workforce Investment Board (SFWIB) partners with the Beacon Council and Neighbors & Neighbors Association, Inc. to host a series of Business Incentives Roundtables for businesses in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties. The second session will take place on Thursday, January 13, 2011, from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. at the Joseph Caleb Center 5400 NW 22 Avenue, Room 110 Miami, FL 33147.

The first session successfully took place this past December at the South Dade Government Center, where businesses throughout Miami-Dade learned how to gain access and benefit from various incentives and other resources offered by SFWIB Business Services. Moderated by workforce and economic development experts, the sessions are focused on how employers can retain and expand their businesses in South Florida by receiving assistance with the costs of training their workforce and prospective employees and more.

“At SFWIB, we recognize that during these tough economic times, unexpected changes can interrupt the momentum that has been built for a business. Through the Roundtables, we hope to engage local businesses in our region with valuable information that will help businesses thrive now, and in the future, said Rick Beasley, executive director for South Florida Workforce Investment Board.

About South Florida Workforce Investment Board

South Florida Workforce is a public-private partnership and integral partner in Miami-Dade’s economic plan that initiates state and federally funded workforce development and training policies for Miami-Dade and Monroe counties. Additionally, South Florida Workforce services and resources are available to everyone at no cost through a network of Career Centers located throughout the Region.

For more information on the Business Incentives Roundtables, contact Cheri Kaveheri, business services manager at 305.594.7615 Ext.407.
